Description

The Danish Electrochemical Society is organizing an annual two days conference on “Electrochemical Science and Technology”. The ambition of the conference is to foster an interdisciplinary interaction between students working in the broad area of ‘Electrochemical Science and Technology’. Another ambition of the conference is to reveal and link together the many different places in Denmark using electrochemistry in the academic as well as the industrial world.

The conference will mainly focus on contributions from Ph.D. and Post-Docs as Oral or Poster presentation. There will be invited contributions from academic and industrial experts. The society welcomes all students to use the conference as a platform for evaluating their research on a wider perspective, and a training ground for scientific presentations and discussions.

In 2010, the conference will be at DTU
